From Tuesday June 1. to Saturday June 5. 1736.

Whitehall, June 4.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Liverpoole, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, has been preſented to the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, Guardian of the Kingdom of Great Britain, by Thomas Brereton, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Grantham her Majeſty's Lord Chamberlain: Which Addreſs her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly, and to order, that it ſhould be tranſmitted to the King at Hanover.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Liverpoole, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with our hearty and ſincere Congratulations on the happy Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales with the illuſtrious Princeſs of Saxe Gotha, and with the moſt grateful Acknowledgement of your Majeſty's Goodneſs, in providing by this Marriage for the Happineſs of your People. We behold your Majeſty reigning in the Hearts of your Subjects, protecting their Commerce, and by your Majeſty's vigilant Care continuing to them the Bleſſings of Peace.

And humbly aſſuring your Majeſty of our ſteady Adherence to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, do with the moſt profound Senſe of Duty and Affection, earneſtly implore that the divine Providence may continue very long to your People the ineſtimable Bleſſing of your Majeſty's Perſon to reign over them, and together with our moſt excellent and gracious Queen, may ſee an happy and numerous Offspring growing up under your Royal Care, and that all the Branches of your Royal Family may enjoy the higheſt Proſperity.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridport, in the County of Dorſet, has been preſented to the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, Guardian of the Kingdom of Great Britain, by William Bo[illegible]les and Solomon Aſhley, Eſqrs. (Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough) accompanied by the Bailiffs and other Members of the Corporation; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, and the Right Hon. the Earl of Coventry, High Steward of the Town of Bridport: Which Addreſs her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly, and to order that it ſhould be tranſmited to the King at Hanover.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, and other principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridport, in the County of Dorſet.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects of your Antient and Loyal Borough of Bridport, humbly crave Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, with a Princeſs of the illuſtrious Houſe of Saxe-Gotha; a Houſe greatly diſtinguiſh'd (like your Majeſty's) for their early Zeal and eminent Sufferings in the Proteſtant Cauſe; but now by the juſt Retribution of Providence, both are glorioufly rewarded, the one with the Poſſeſſion, the other with the Proſpect of greater Dominions, than their Heroick Anceſtors ſo bravely ventured, and ſo nobly loſt.

In this auſpicious Match, as by the lovely Perſon and amiable Qualities of the Princeſs, your Majeſty, as a natural Parent, has ſhewn the kindeſt Condeſcenſion to the Wiſhes of his Royal Highneſs, ſo your Majeſty, with your wonted Goodneſs, has diſpos'd of the Kingdom's Heir, like the common Father of your People.

We heartily Pray that your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort may Live long and happy, and ſee a numerous Progeny ſpring from this illuſtrious Pair, who may tranſcribe the bright Perfections of their Royal Progenitors, and tranſmit them to lateſt Poſterity.

Paris, June 10, N. S. King Staniſlaus arrived at Meudon laſt Tueſday, and went to Verſailles on Thurſday to ſee the moſt Chriſtian King, who received him in publick with all Marks of Kindneſs and Affection, and gave him the uſual Treatment that crown'd Heads have on ſuch Occaſions. The next Day the moſt Chriſtian King returned the Viſit.

Whitehall, June 4.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed, upon the ſeveral and reſpective Surrenders of Dougall Cuthbert and James Gambier, Eſqrs. and in purſuance of an Act of Parliament paſſed in the Second Year of his Majeſty's Reign, (intituled, An Act to impower his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, during the Life of Thomas Bambridge, Eſq; to grant the Office of Warden of the Priſon of the Fleet to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as his Majeſty ſhall think fit, and to incapacitate the ſaid Thomas Bambridge to enjoy the ſaid Office, or any other whatſoever) to grant to John Garth, Eſq; the ſaid Office of Warden of the Fleet, and the Cuſtody of the Priſon and Goal of the Fleet to the ſaid Office belonging.
